

LEADERSHIP 1-2-3 LEARNING SUITE

John F. Kennedy was once quoted as saying that “Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other.” In this TMI Learning Suite Managers and Leaders are encouraged to learn about how they can inspire others to aim for more, do more, learn more, and be more as well as see the opportunities in every potential difficulty particularly in a globally operating enterprise.

This Learning Suite comprises 8 full days of learning in three programmes covering three levels of need. Built on sound principles that provide a vital contribution to the development of any manager or leader.

Each of the programmes offers inspiration as well as ideas, tools, practical approaches and processes to engage everyone's energy for the success of the company.

How You Benefit

- Inspire others to higher levels of engagement and contribution
- Successfully lead others in times of turbulence and change
- Develop and successfully use the key skills and competencies of leadership with proven and practical tools
- Develop an immediately applicable personal leadership action plan

Who Should Attend

Newly appointed or experienced managers with leadership responsibilities who have either formal or informal leadership roles

Duration

Leadership 1 – Three days
Leadership 2 – Two days
Leadership 3 – Three days

Participant Materials

Each of the three leadership programmes have a fully documented Participant Handbook that supports the programme agenda.

Style

A thought-provoking learning suite comprising presentations, discussions, activities, group and individual work, all based on real situations.

Our emphasis is on the LEARNING and the workplace application of skills by the LEARNER

Let's get started!